

Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment Celebrates Fatherhood With “30 Days Of Dads”

Dedicates Month Of June To Dads With Feature Film, Television Series, And Articles

COS COB, CT – JUNE 4, 2018 – Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment, Inc. (“CSS Entertainment”) (Nasdaq: CSSE), a growing media company building online video on-demand (“VOD”) networks that provide positive and entertaining video content for all screens, today announced a new campaign across its film, television and digital platforms to celebrate fatherhood in June with “30 Days of Dads.”

With Father’s Day just around the corner, CSS Entertainment is dedicating the month of June to real-life superheroes: DADS. CSS Entertainment has a wide variety of content focused around fatherhood and is utilizing the month of June to showcase articles, television series, digital series, and even a feature film that celebrates the wonderful fathers in the world.

“We at Chicken Soup for the Soul love stories about dads” said chairman and chief executive officer William J. Rouhana Jr. “We’ve created entertaining content that showcases fathers of all races, religions, backgrounds, and walks of life. This is an opportunity for men and fathers not only to relate to what is familiar, but also to understand other fathers’ experiences all of whom share the same underlying goal: be the best dad they can be.”

During “30 Days of Dads” audiences can read fun and lighthearted articles on APlus.com and can find dad-dedicated content on Popcornflix.com, CSS Entertainment’s ad-supported video on-demand streaming service. Popcornflix can be found on the web, mobile app stores, and all major OTT devices. Audiences can also enjoy the feature film “One Last Thing” in theaters across the nation for one night only on June 13.
