

CHICKEN SOUP FOR THE SOUL ENTERTAINMENT PROMOTES ELANA SOFKO TO CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

COS COB, CT – NOVEMBER 14, 2017 – Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment, Inc. (“CSS Entertainment”) (Nasdaq: CSSE), a fast-growing provider of positive and entertaining video content, today announced that Elana Sofko has been appointed to the new position of chief operating officer.

Ms. Sofko’s qualifications include worldwide experience in distribution, monetization, digital tech and products, and business and corporate development.

“Elana is a recognized, seasoned and trusted business executive and results-driven leader,” said William J. Rouhana, Jr., chairman and chief executive officer. “Promoting Elana to the additional position of COO reflects my high level of confidence in Elana and in her ability to drive the operations, development and growth of our business, including our Screen Media operations.”

“The shifts in media consumption today create a compelling opportunity to scale Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment’s reach and serve audiences with content in any genre and on any platform,” said Ms. Sofko. “I am incredibly excited to help lead the company in its next phase of growth and innovation.”

Ms. Sofko joined CSS Entertainment in 2016 as senior vice president of business development and distribution. Ms. Sofko brings over two decades of media and entertainment experience. Prior to joining the company, Ms. Sofko focused on a range of digital business growth initiatives for World Wrestling Entertainment, including international expansion and localization of WWE’s digital properties. Ms. Sofko also supported the launch and international expansion of the WWE Network, a subscription-based video over-the-top (OTT) service. Previously, Ms. Sofko worked on the launch of satellite radio as part of the start-up team at a predecessor of SiriusXM. She has also overseen strategic growth initiatives at ESPN and A&E Television Networks.
