Lead trainer Lisa Porter will accompany Mr. Skow to SuperZoo. They will speak about their work with at-risk dogs in Kern County, CA as well as their mission to make a pawsitive and lasting impact on their community. Ms. Porter has worked in the past with well-known trainer Cesar Millan to teach Socialization and Walking Courses at the Dog Psychology Center in Santa Clarita.

"We have worked with Zach and his team over the past two years, donating over 20,000 pounds of premium dog food to his Tehachapi-based rescue and the Pawsitive Change Prison Program," said Jeanne Blandford Senior Director of Marketing for Chicken Soup for the Soul Pet Food. "We recently visited his ranch and are so impressed with the progress he continues to make. His dedication to these dogs and his community is exemplary. We are happy to help Zach spread the word about the importance of the human-animal bond."
