Miraculous messages from heaven

Chicken Soup for the Soul shares amazing true stories

COS COB, Conn. – Marla Thurman woke one night and found her best friend, who had recently died, sitting on her bed and telling her not to grieve. Marla thought she had dreamt the visit, until she saw her dogs repeatedly investigating the exact spot where her friend had sat! Marla found great comfort in her friend's visit, but she wouldn't have believed it except for the dogs' behavior. Marla, like the other contributors to Chicken Soup for the Soul: Miraculous Messages from Heaven (Chicken Soup for the Soul Publishing, LLC, Oct. 15, 2013, 978-1611599268, $14.95), experienced a painful loss but was inspired and comforted by a connection from beyond.

From stories of dreams and premonitions, to heavenly messengers and answered prayers, to divine visits from loved ones, the stories in Chicken Soup for the Soul: Miraculous Messages from Heaven demonstrate that powerful and miraculous signs from beyond can happen to anyone.

Stories like Leslie Gulvas's show us that our loved ones can still look after us, even from beyond. Leslie was surprised one day while sitting in the park when a woman jogged by, stopped, and came back to speak to her. The jogger told Leslie she had no idea why, but a woman named Pattie was insisting she tell Leslie "she didn't know what hit her." Little did the messenger know that Leslie's aunt Pattie had died tragically when a train hit her car years earlier. That message eased Leslie's concern about whether Pattie had suffered in her final moments.

Other contributors share personal messages they received from loved ones in heaven, proving they are still listening. After their grandmother's funeral, Sharon Fuentes and her sister revealed to each other that their other grandmother had visited each of them in dreams after her death. They told each other, half kidding, that they didn't want this grandmother to visit them, too. When Sharon's cousin called the next day, Sharon got surprising news. Her cousin said their newly deceased grandmother came to her in a dream and called Sharon a chicken!

These miraculous accounts of answered prayers, love that doesn't die and heavenly messages will renew your faith. They are truly hopeful and inspiring – and wonderful for anyone who has lost a loved one.
