Real romance is alive and well

Chicken Soup for the Soul uncovers true love

COS COB, Conn. –Who doesn't enjoy a good love story? From Romeo and Juliet to "When Harry Met Sally," love stories have made us laugh and cry for centuries. There is a door in everyone's heart that opens to the notion of true love.

Chicken Soup for the Soul: True Love (Chicken Soup for the Soul Publishing, LLC, December 2009, 978-1-935096-43-6, $14.95) is a fun, new read about dating, romance, love and marriage, guaranteed to inspire a renewed search for that special someone, or open your heart a little more to the one you already love.

Read fascinating stories about how couples met, when "they knew," incredible good and bad dates, imaginative proposals, wedding day adventures, second chances, the ones that got away, and all the other ups and downs that come hand-in-hand with true love, including great examples of how to keep relationships strong.

"True love is a wondrous and sometime perplexing thing, and we relish the opportunity to hear others' stories," says Amy Newmark, Chicken Soup for the Soul publisher and co-author of the book. "Whether it's a disastrous date we have to share with our friends, or the realization that you might have just found the woman or man of your dreams, sharing our triumphs and defeats in the game of love is part of what makes us human."

From the beloved, bestselling Chicken Soup for the Soul brand, Chicken Soup for the Soul: True Love is the latest addition to their popular collection of love stories, featuring completely new tales from people of all walks of life.

Chicken Soup for the Soul: True Love (Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen & Amy Newmark) released in December 2009.
